

Herald Cameramen Tell Their Story

FLAGSHIP GETS OVERHAULING—A warrior of the sea, clad in gray armor, the flagship California, of the Pacific fleet, rides into drydock at San Francisco for its annual chiropedic operation for barnacles. (International Illustrated News)

SMASHES UP ON ICE—A sharp bank turn results in this air skimmer taking a dive onto the ice at Lake Mendota, Wis., damaging it beyond repair and injuring two flyers. (International Illustrated News)

LAFF THAT OFF!—They do say that Connie Talmadge (upper), screen comedienne, is married to Ben Finney (lower), wealthy Tennessee cotton broker, but Connie and Ben wouldn't confirm rumor at San Francisco.

S-4 VICTIM BURIED—Impressive rites mark funeral of Lieut.-Commander Roy K. Jones, skipper of ill-fated submarine, as interment is made at Arlington National Cemetery. (Copyright, Harris & Ewing)

NEW PLAY—Eugene O'Neill, America's great dramatist, comes forth with a study of Marco Polo as his first theatrical contribution in several years.

ICY ACROBATICS—Hilda Ruckert, European skating queen, and Howard Nicholson demonstrate a rather tricky maneuver on the ice at St. Moritz. (International Illustrated News)

KING'S PAL—Little Alexandra, daughter of Princess Aspasia of Greece, is the charming and most favored playmate of King Mickey of Rumania. (International Illustrated News)

BACK FROM HIS NATIVE LAND—John McCormack, the noted Irish tenor, pictured with his wife and daughter Gwendolyn upon their return to New York after a holiday spent in Ireland. (International Newsreel)

QUITS LEGION—John H. Hargreaves, Englishman, deserted French Foreign Legion with Bennett Doty. He was caught and sentenced to prison, but has been pardoned and released. (International Illustrated News)

HORSES, HORSES, HORSES!—Only in this case the fiery steeds are sawbucks, mounted by rival polo teams of the Wenonah Military Academy, of Wenonah, N. J. (International Illustrated News)

DEMOCRATIC WOMEN MEET—First convention of the National Woman's Democratic Law Enforcement League gets under way in Washington. Among those present are, left to right: Mrs. J. Broadus, of Virginia, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Jesse W. Nicholson, of Baltimore, president of speakers' bureau and Mrs. Edward T. Smith, of Missouri, treasurer. (International Newsreel)

TAKING THE OATH OF OFFICE—Clerk J. B. Randolph of War Department administers oath to General S. Gibbs, new chief signal officer of the army at Washington, while General Charles A. Saltzman looks on. (International Newsreel)

POTENTATE AT PRAYER—Amanullah Khan (right), Amir of Afghanistan, offers prayer before presentation of addresses at brilliant welcome given him in Bombay. (International Newsreel)